

The theme of the 2019 NMAC Historic Built Environment workshop is “Historic Linear Resources”, with discussions on the history of these resources, and new methods for documenting historic acequias, trails, railroads, roads, and road features. The general workshop schedule is:

Hibben Center Foyer: Registration and Continental Breakfast- 8:30-9:00am.

Hibben Center Auditorium:

Welcoming Remarks- 9:00-9:10am.

Topic 1: NMHPD New Guidance on Recording Historic Linear Feature- 9:10-10:10am .

Updates on recording/documenting historic linear features [historic acequias, trails, railroads, roads, and road features (bridges)]. Presented by New Mexico Historic Preservation Division staff.

Morning Break 10:10am-10:30am Coffee, tea, breakfast foods, continued

Topic 2: NPS Santa Fe Trail, El Camino Real Trail, and historic Rt 66- 10:30-11:30am.

The intersection of archaeology and history of these historic trails and road. Presented by Charles Haecker/former NPS Historic Landmark Program.

Lunch on your own- 11:30am-1:00pm

Topic 3: The Significance of the Dawson Railroad Line- 1:00-2:00pm

Among the hundreds of early railroad lines in NM, the historic of the northeastern NM Dawson Railroad Line is discussed. Presented by Fred Friedman/former NMDOT Rail Program Manager.

Afternoon Break 2:00-2:15 Coffee, iced tea, brownies, and cookies!

Topic 4: Recent Issues with Historic Route 66- 2:15-3:15pm

The latest on the NPS Route 66 Preservation Program. Presented by Kaisa Barthuli/NPS Rt 66 Preservation Program Manager.

Topic 5: Recording Historic Bridges on New Mexico Highways- 3:15-3:30pm

A quick overview on recording historic NMDOT bridges. Presented by Kim Parker/SWCA Cultural Resources Program Manager, and Laurel Wallace/LTWallace&Associates

NMAC Committee meeting for the Historic Built Environment- 3:30-4:00pm. Committee members a must, but open to all interested parties; specifically on developing the next workshop.

Please follow the links to register and pay for attending this workshop. Registration must include paying for NMAC membership as well as the conference fee. Registration for the workshop can also be completed by mail, with forms and fees sent to: NMAC, PO Box 25691, Albuquerque NM 87125.

Registration includes a certificate for 8 training hours, if attendance is for entire workshop day. Please contact Laurel Wallace, NMAC Historic Built Environment Committee Chair, with any questions or concerns, at LTWassoc@gmail.com.