

New Mexico Archeological Council

2020 NMAC Fall Conference
Pithouse to Pueblo Transition
Saturday, November 7th, 2020

Conference Opening

10:00-10:05 AM

Kye Miller, NMAC Past President, kmiller@paleowest.com

NMAC Update and News

10:05-10:15 AM

Teresa Hurt, NMAC President, teresa.hurt@swca.com

Paleodiet of Turkeys (Meleagris gallopavo) in the Early Pueblo Period of the Northern Southwest

10:15-10:30 AM

Kye Miller, Harlan McCaffrey, and Robert Tykot

Did Aztec West have Barrios? A Look at Pit Structures and Their History on the Site

10:30-10:45 AM

Vern Hensler

Change and Innovation Viewed Through Pottery and Architecture in the Basketmaker III Period in Southwest Colorado

10:45-11:00 AM

Kari Schleher and Shanna R. Diederichs

Morning Break 11:00-11:15 AM

A Prehistoriography of the Ancient Mimbres

11:15-11:30 AM

Jakob Sedig

The Mimbres Horizon, Northern Viejo, or Something in Between?: The Pithouse-to-Pueblo Transition in Far Southwestern New Mexico

11:30-11:45 AM

Thatcher Rogers

Ethnogenesis in the Verde Valley, Arizona

11:45 AM-12:00 PM

Andrew Larsen

Lunch Break 12:00-1:15 PM

Pit Houses Through Time and Space in the Albuquerque Basin and Southwest Margin of the Greater Four Corners Region

1:15-1:30 PM

Jim Railey

Ballistic Technology Change and Appearance of Stockaded Hamlets and Villages in the American Southwest

1:30-1:45 PM

Ron Fields

Mud Daubers, Spiders, and Abandonment at LA112420, an Early Developmental Pitstructure in Sandoval County, New Mexico

1:45-2:00 PM

Rebecca Wells, Kenneth Brown, Matthew Leister, and Sandra Brantley